

Sogang Korean Language Program (Pangyo Campus)

【 Course Introduction 】

- Sogang University is the first university to establish a foothold in Pangyo, the 'startup paradise.' Sogang University Pangyo Campus is a new type of 'field-oriented university campus' that executes education, research, and entrepreneurship simultaneously in the heart of the industrial field.
- Sogang University Pangyo Campus is located in Withen Tower (3F - 6F). It operates a university-industry cooperation hub that provides educational facilities for system semiconductor design training and MOT AX Master's programs, while fostering startups and talent in AI, semiconductors, and mobility through global collaboration.
- Sogang University Korean Language Education Center is opening a Korean language program at the Pangyo Campus—the global IT industry hub—starting in the 2026 Summer semester, and is now recruiting global talents who wish to learn the Korean language.
